

Four key areas physicians and administrators think are valuable when it comes to after care and monitoring patients post-procedure:

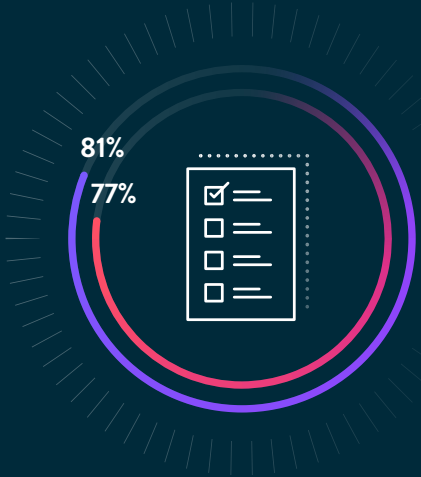

● Physicians

● Administrators

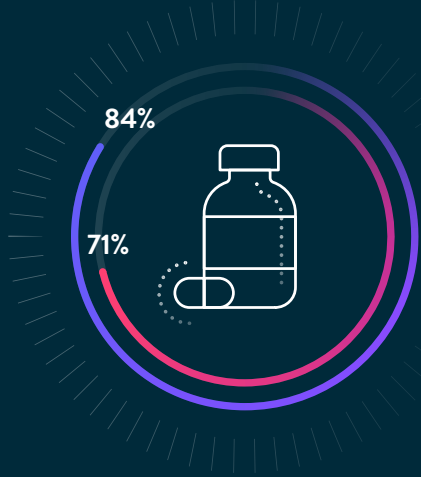

Percent selected very or extremely valuable

Understanding of patient lifestyle and living situation to enable a care plan that suits them

Cardiac rehab centers

Ability to gain insights into the likelihood of a patient's adherence to a treatment protocol

Use of digital reminders and telemedicine consultations with patients